Foreword

School life has many forms, figures, and flashes of color. The 1962 Empescope uses all of them to "paint a picture of MPHS". This theme is designed to preserve for each student the vivid experiences of school life and the events which make our Alma Mater so dear to us.

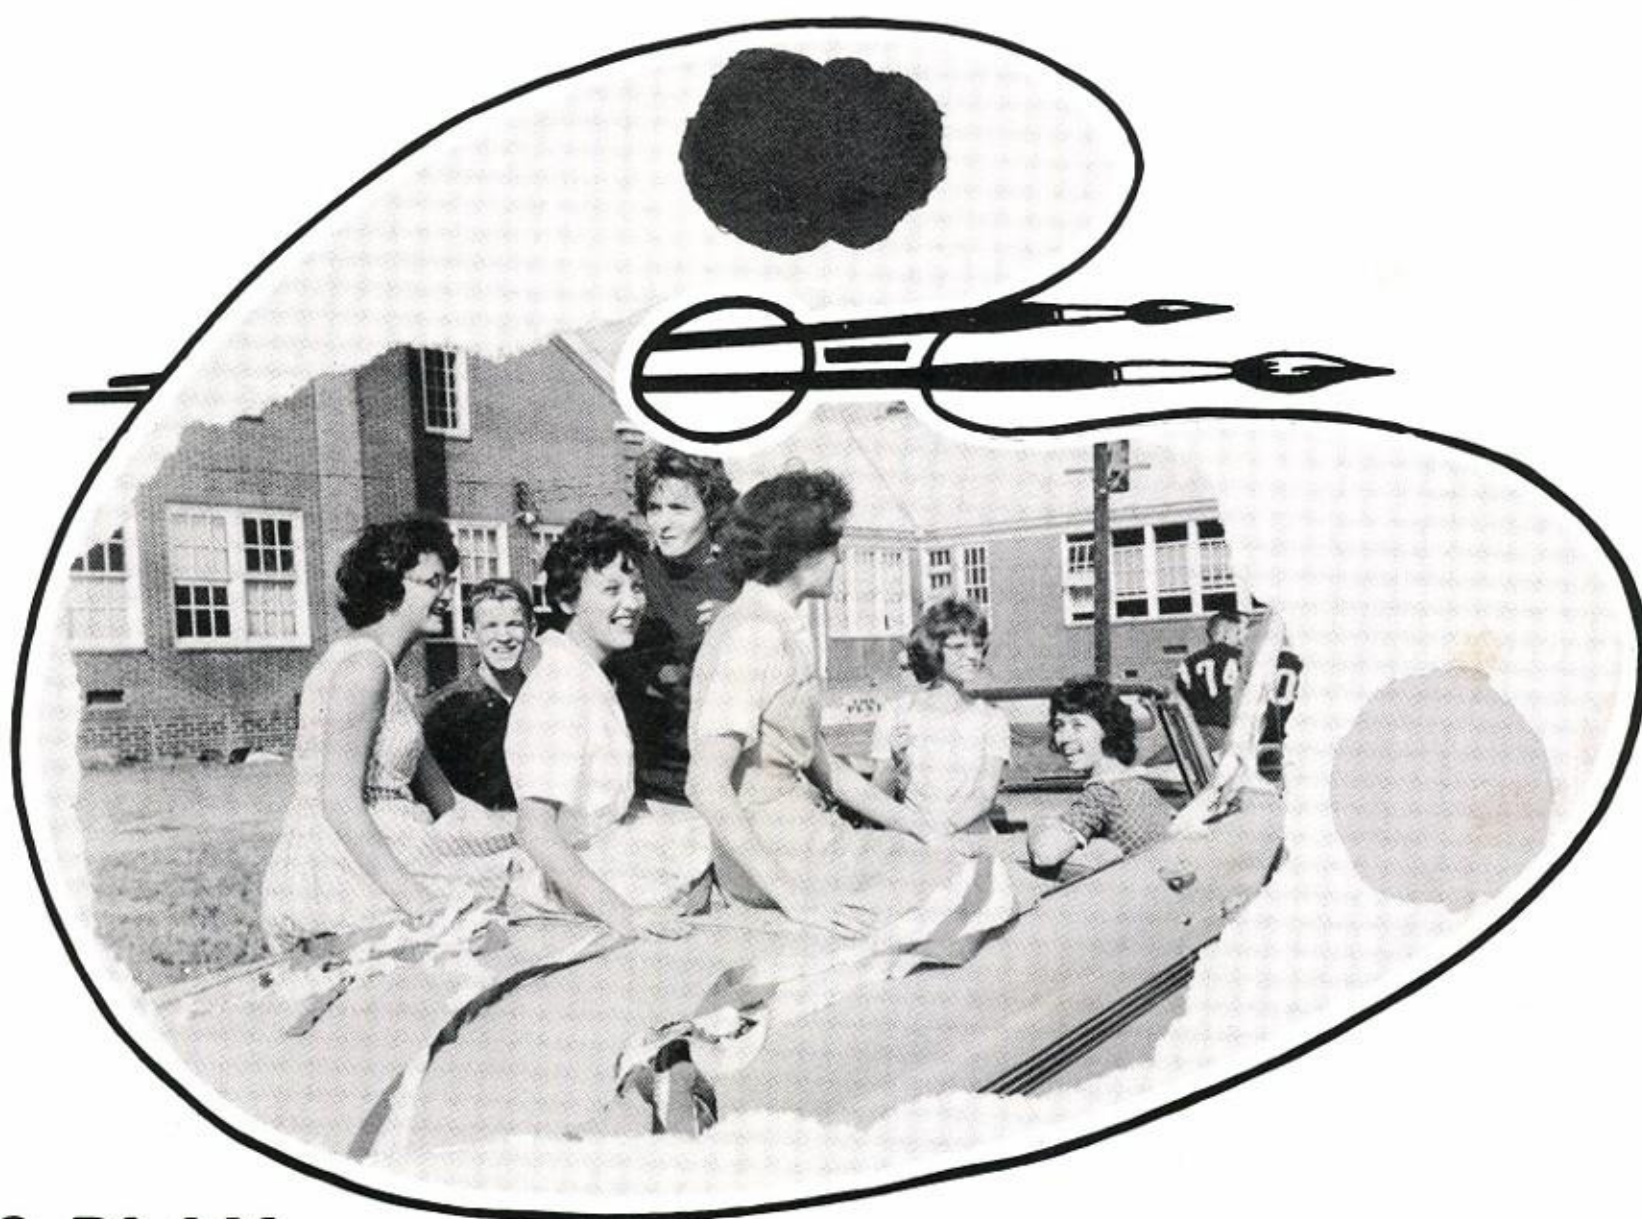

As you turn the pages you will see students studying (yes, truly); "having a ball"; working (to some extent); loafing (well, of course!); daydreaming; cramming (hopefully); socializing (well, naturally!); competing (in athletics and other things); and participating energetically and joyfully in everything that goes on throughout the buildings and campus.

The spirit is golden, the friendliness is contagious, the tradition is honorable and dignified.

Watch our students, now, as they work, play, make lasting friendships, and generate that effervescent excitement that comes only when one is "growing up".

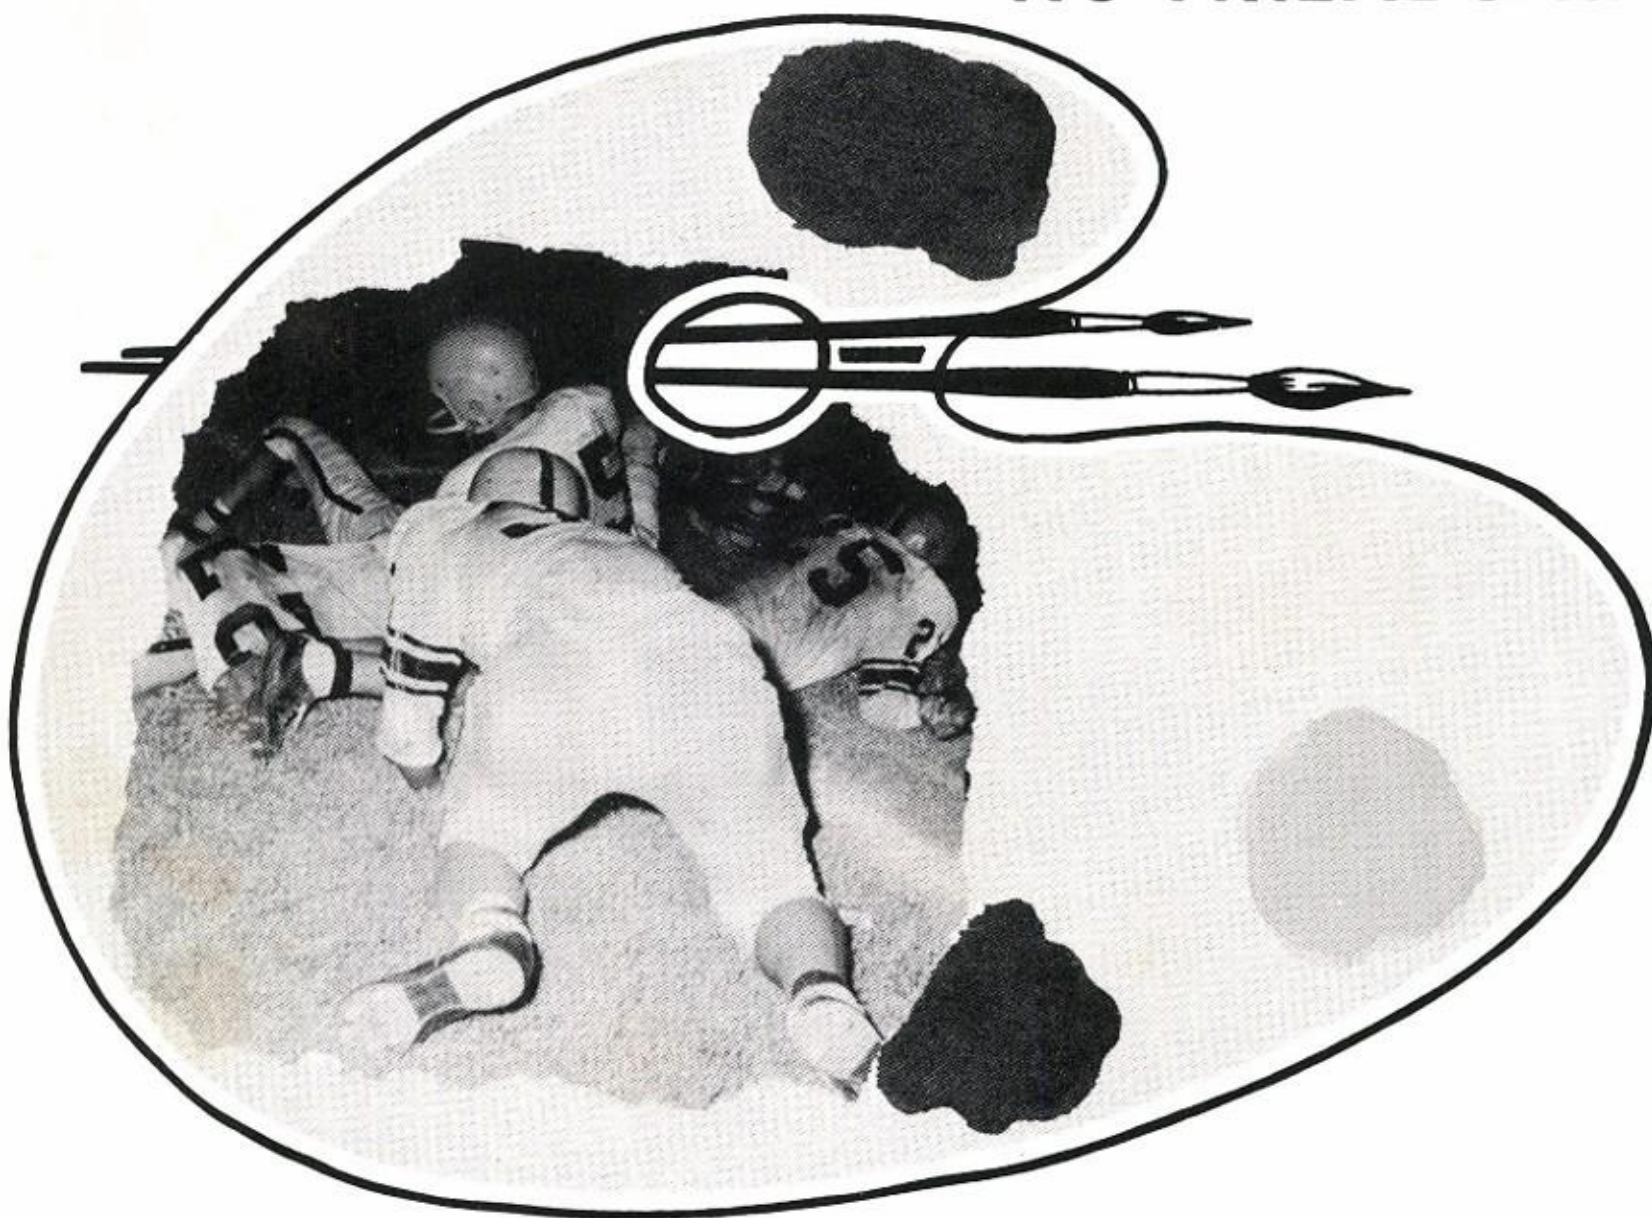

ITS WORK.....

ITS PLAY.....

ITS FRIENDSHIP.....

ITS EXCITEMENT.....

Dedication

For students of the past and of the present no picture of Mary Persons can be complete without Miss Searcy and Miss Pettis. In our memories they will always be a very special part of the scene. For these, and for many other reasons, we now dedicate to you,

MISS JULIA SEARCY
and
MISS VIVIAN PETTIS,

1962 Empescope
and as we do this, we offer our deep and sincere appreciation of your many years of teaching and of your lives which have helped us see the Master Teacher through you. May His blessing continue upon all that you undertake.

MISS VIVIAN PETTIS

MISS JULIA SEARCY

To them we say:

"One mark of a good teacher is a spirit of humility. You have not only caught this spirit but you have communicated it to others around you."

"Everyone who has seen you, Miss Searcy, direct your choral group has only to close his eyes for a moment to recall a mental image of your expressive hands as they have guided and directed voices to blend in sweet harmony."

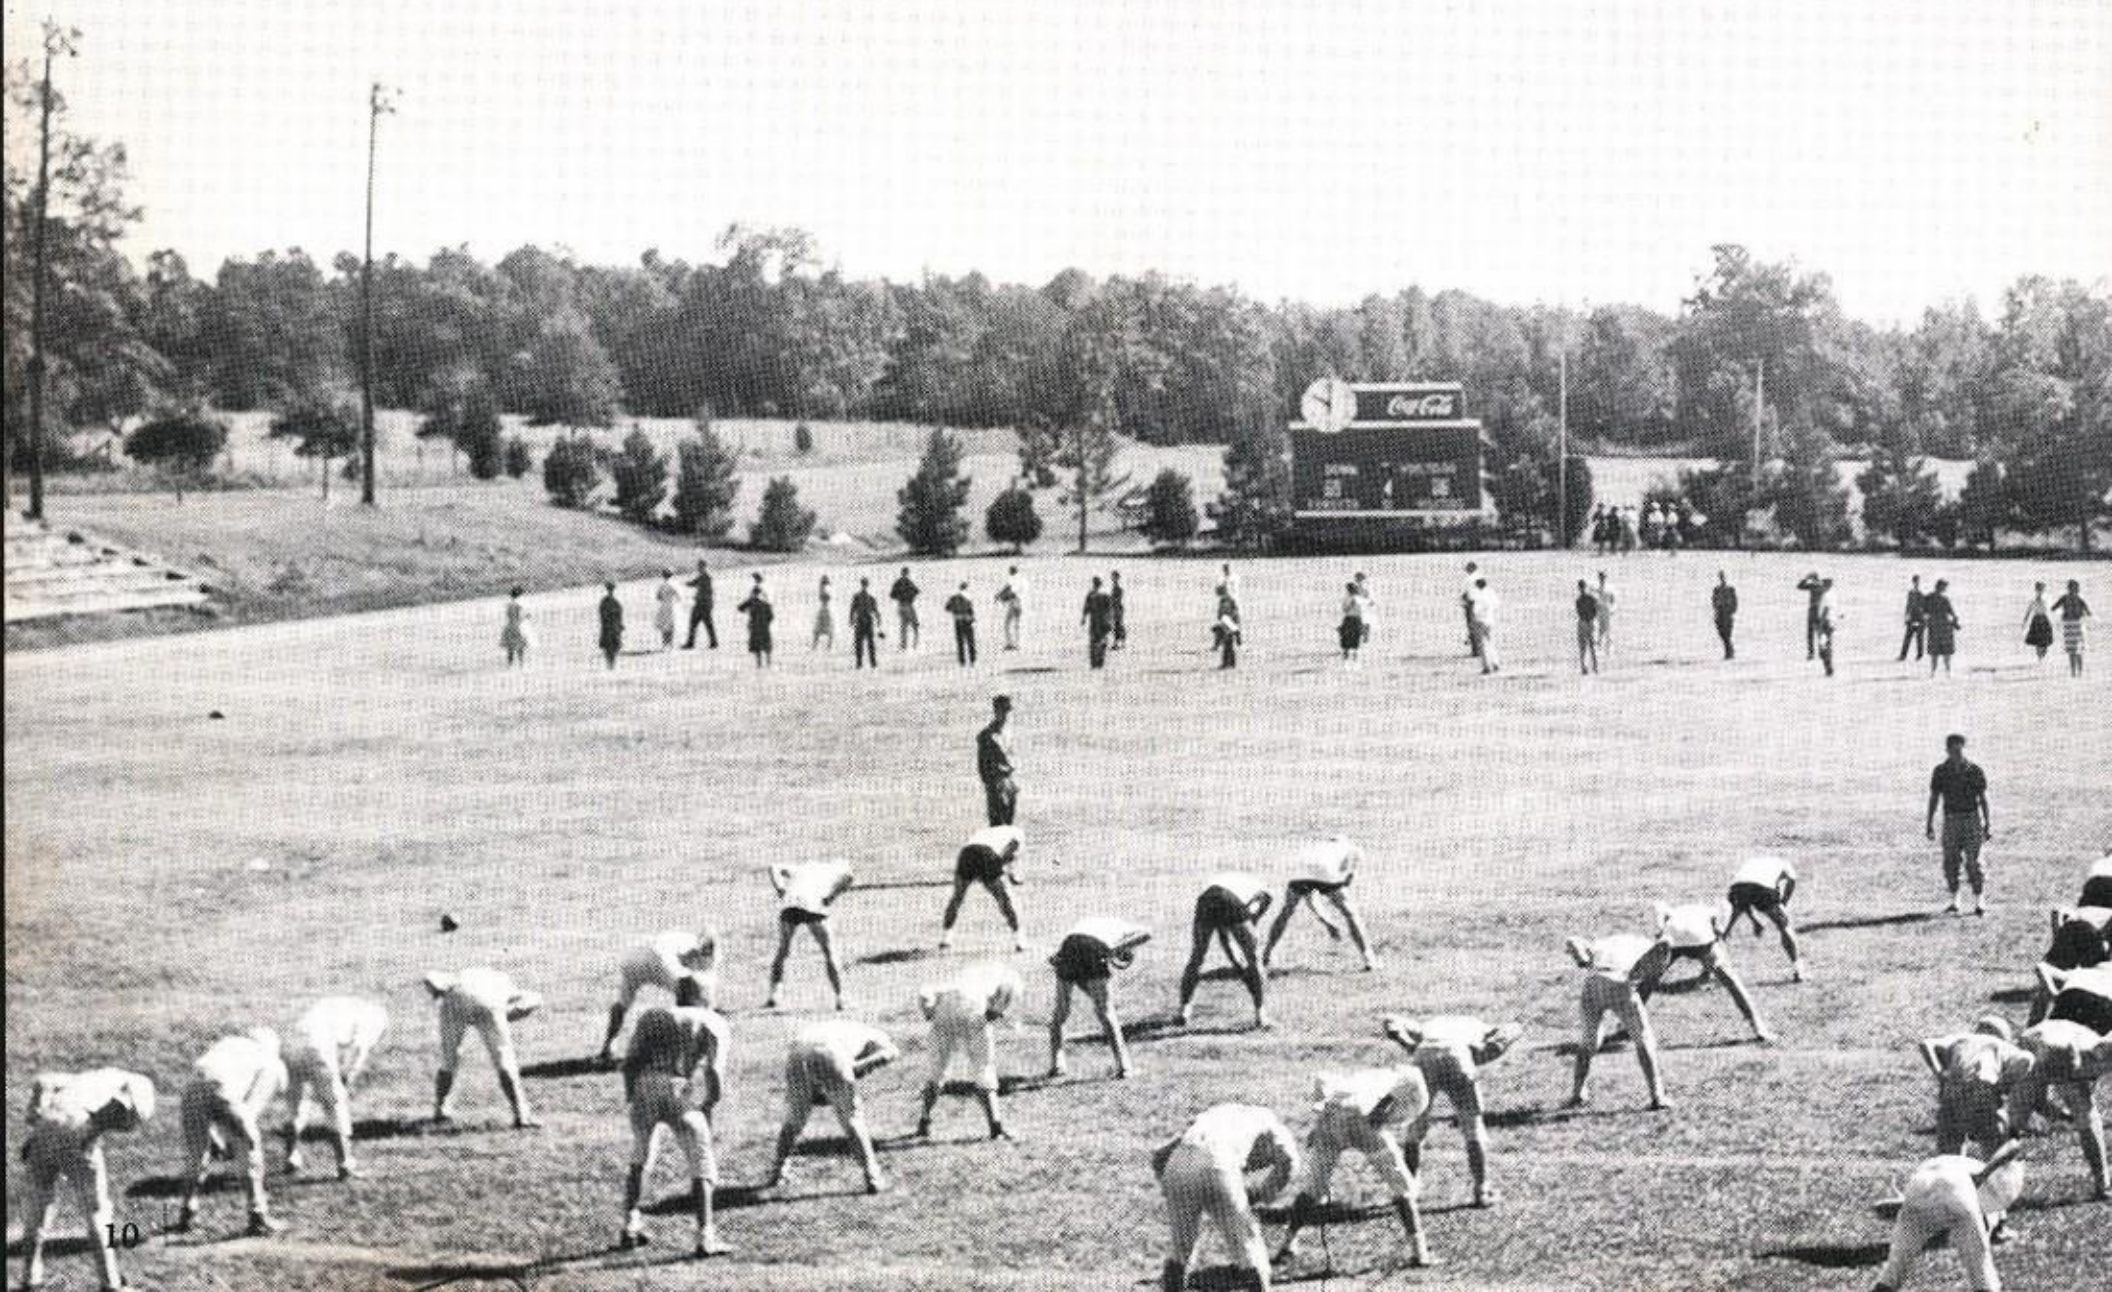

"Miss Pettis, we often see you in our mind's eye opening the door to the library, just as you opened doors to the wonderful contents within the books. And, always, your interest in each student brought him or her back to MPHS at the first opportunity, back to that library door."

"Many students have stood in your presence with awe, admiration, and respect for the vast amount of factual knowledge you have imparted to them, for the mystery of learning you have unfolded."

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, we honor thee.
We pledge anew love and loyalty,
A loyalty to the Black and the Gold.
Hail to the dearest school of all,
The scene of happy days.
Hail to our Alma Mater;
Her praise we'll sing always.
Loyal sons and loving daughters
May we ever be;
Standards high we will uphold
To Mary Persons' Black and Gold.

MRS. PHILIP DELEGAL
Secretary

The graduating class of 1962! This is your year-the year it seemed to you would never come.

Your interest is now in the future for there you will spend your life.

The future is big and broad and deep. It offers you an opportunity but not security, a challenge but not a guarantee. There are rewards for those who serve, honor for those who earn it, beauty for those who see it, responsibility for those who will accept it, and a great need for those with character.

We are all proud of you and believe in you. Good luck on your walk into the future!

"We may give advice but we cannot give conduct."

—Franklin

Someone has said that we are what we are largely because of the contributions made by those who have preceded us.

We here at Mary Persons are fortunate to have had ancestors who were men and women of upright conduct and strong moral convictions. This has been one of their contributions to us. Today there is an urgent need for higher types of personal conduct. It is imperative that we preserve the contributions made by those who preceded us and strive to leave behind us even higher standards of moral behavior.
